

I strongly support all elements of the petition RM-10811. It is the only petition that fosters continued excellence within the membership of the amateur radio service. Most of the other petitions reduce advancement in license classes to "merit badges" rather than landmarks of personal achievement. Instant gratification and lack of commitment to learn any new skills in order to achieve new privileges seem to be the goal of many other petitions.